

To market, to market

Melbournians love to shop, whether it's fashion or food. The city's many markets showcase the finest in gourmet produce, arts and craft. These are a selection of our favourites. Check out onlymelbourne.com.au for opening details and more listings.

- A Queen Victoria Market - The Queen Vic is Victoria's premier open - air market. The freshest produce at rock bottom prices. Just don't head there on Monday or Wednesday - everyone needs a day off. qvm.com.au
- B Federation Square Book Market - The city's largest weekly book market held in The Atrium at Fed Square. Take your pick from over 5000 new and pre - loved titles every Saturday. Great Expectations? Fully exceeded we say. fedsquare.com
- C Sunday Market at the Arts Centre - Melbourne fosters a thriving independent arts and craft scene. Come along and support them in their trade. The perfect antidote to any rainy Sunday as it's one of the only outdoor markets with a roof. theartscentre.com.au
- D South Melbourne Market - Cycle south of the river to one of Melbourne's most popular fruit and veg markets. Open 4 days a week, that's plenty of time to sample the dim sims - they're a South Melbourne market institution. Yummy. southmelbournemarket.com.au
